

Keeping our Children in full time Education in Surrey: The Evidence–what works and ways to improve

July 2nd, 2021, Windsor Building, Royal Holloway - University of London

A Royal Holloway, University of London seminar convened by The High Sheriff of Surrey,
Dr Julie Llewelyn

Meeting facilitator: Jim Glover OBE, DL.

Agenda

- | | | |
|---------------|--|--|
| 8:15am | Registration and coffee, tea, smoothies, fruit and pastries | |
| 9:00am | Welcome to Royal Holloway University | Professor James Knowles , Deputy Principal of Royal Holloway, University of London |
| 9:05am | Welcome to delegates and speakers, and introduction | Dr Julie Llewelyn The High Sheriff of Surrey |
| 9:15am | The inclusion agenda: Alternative Learning Provision in Surrey and issues for school leaders seeking to prevent school exclusions. | Ron Searle , Chair of Trustees Designate– Inclusive Education Trust, Surrey Alternative Learning Programme, and former Surrey Headteacher |
| 9:30am | Permanent school exclusions in Surrey: What works to keep children and young people in education? | Dr Emily Glorney , Research Project Lead, and Natasha Rhoden , Research Assistant, Royal Holloway, University of London |
| 9:50am | The consequences for children and communities in Surrey of school exclusion: a Community Safety perspective, research in Surrey, and some promising approaches in prevention | Gavin Stevens , Chief Constable of Surrey Police QPM and Mairead Warner for Carl Bussey , Assistant |

Director of Community
Safety,
Surrey County Council

10:10am What is the 'Third Sector' doing in Surrey to help children struggling with school attendance?

John Downing, CEO
Surrey Care Trust

10:25am Coffee/tea, biscuits, and fruit (20 mins.)

10:50am Panel Discussion: Questions from audience to speakers

Ron Searle, Emily
Glorney, CC Gavin
Stephens, Mairead
Warner, John Downing,
Rachael Wardell
Executive Director for Children, Families and
Lifelong Learning at Surrey
County Council

11:20am Case Studies

The Glasgow Model: A holistic approach to improving educational outcomes through getting it right for every child

Maureen McKenna,
Executive Director of Education Services,
Glasgow

11:50am Case Study Two:
An active Partnerships approach to school inclusion

David Blow, Executive
headteacher, The South
East Surrey Schools
Education Trust

Jacky Fyson,
Headteacher, St John's C
of E Primary School, The Goodwyns Estate, Dorking

12:10pm Panel Discussion: Questions from audience to speakers

Maureen Mackenna,
Jacky Fyson and David
Blow

12:30pm Break Out Discussion Groups
Brief: Evidence based Policy to Practice:

What are the 3 key actions required to keep children in school?

- a) From a Surrey wide policy perspective? 10 minutes
- b) In local areas between groups of primary and secondary schools? 10 minutes

Leaders in breakout groups: John Downing, Louise O'Connor, Ron Searle and Mark Keiller

- | | | |
|----------------|--|--|
| 12:55pm | Feedback from sessions and correlation of key actions to inform next steps | Facilitated by Louise O'Connor DL, Education Adviser to Surrey Shrievalty/RHUL project and Jim Glover OBE, DL. |
| 1:20pm | Thanks, conclusions, next steps, farewells.

Sandwich lunch and evaluation forms, with short questionnaire on 'Way Forward for Surrey', to be collated, analysed and used to inform next steps | Dr Julie Llewelyn The High Sheriff of Surrey |
| 2:30pm | Close of proceedings | |