

Summit meeting for key stakeholders: Implementing School inclusion in Surrey

March 2nd, 2022, The Picture Gallery and Windsor Building, Royal Holloway - University of London

A Royal Holloway, University of London seminar convened by The High Sheriff of Surrey, Dr Julie Llewelyn

Meeting facilitator: Jim Glover OBE, DL.

Agenda

12:15pm Registration and networking lunch (The Picture Gallery)

Welcome to Royal Holloway University

Professor James Knowles, Deputy Principal of Royal Holloway, University of London

The role of Surrey County Council in implementation of the RHUL research recommendations

Mr Tim Oliver, Leader of Surrey County Council

2:00pm Summit Meeting

Welcome to delegates and speakers, and introduction

Dr Julie Llewelyn, The High Sheriff of Surrey

Research

2.10pm Permanent school exclusion in Surrey: evidence based key levers for change

Dr Emily Glorney, Research Project Lead and Senior Lecturer, Royal Holloway, University of London

Implementing the inclusion agenda

- 2.30pm The enhanced Alternative Learning Provision in Surrey
Ron Searle, Chair of Trustees Inclusive Education Trust, Chair of Surrey Alternative Learning Programme Central Board, and former Surrey Headteacher
- 2.50pm Early intervention: a new evidence based risk index to identify children at risk of permanent exclusion in Surrey. Why we need it and how it will work.
Gavin Stephens QPM, Chief Constable of Surrey Police
Ron Searle
- 3.20pm Panel Discussion: Questions from audience to speakers on implementation
CC Gavin Stephens, Ron Searle, Dr Emily Glorney, Rachael Wardell Executive Director for Children, Families and Lifelong Learning at Surrey County Council
- 3.30pm Tea, cake and fruit (20 mins)
- 3.50pm The importance of preventing children falling through the gaps in education
Anne Longfield CBE, former Children's Commissioner for England
- Harnessing Third Sector Support
- MCR Pathways: An evidence based pilot study in Surrey using the holistic Glasgow approach
Dr Iain MacRitchie, Founder of MCR Pathways
- 4.10pm The role of the third sector in Surrey: the post pandemic mental health challenges
Dr Rebecca Bowden Chief Executive of the Community Foundation for Surrey
- 4.30pm Thanks and agreed next steps
Dr Julie Llewelyn